TTS Monthly Match 11 June 2010

Master MD Mike Sells has truly setup an amazing match that gave all shooters something to think about. The level of this setup was equal to a state level match with props that included droppers, drop turners and our newly made Running man. This running man was drunk so he also had a bit of a swing!

A total of 57 shooters made it for this match. Congrats to all !

Carolina Cup 16 June 2011

If you could only shoot one major IDPA Match in the country, it should be the Carolina Cup . This is what IDPA is all about—a match that squeezes the maximum amount of fun out of IDPA while staying true to the spirit and principles of the sport. I've shot IDPA Major Matches this year at all kinds of locations, and I have to say that the team that ran the 2011 Carolina Cup was absolutely the best match staff I've seen at an IDPA major match. My hat is off in gratitude and respect for the professional and efficient way that they handled the shooters through the days.

The match was attended by 6 Distinguished

Masters: Bob Vogel, Glenn Shelby, Tom Yost, Ernest Langdon, Curt Nichols and our own Gordon Carrell. It was a true experience to see these Pro's shoot.

A total of 12 TTS shooters made it to the Cup. With 3 Wood, 2 Bumps and a raffle gun 1911

Darrell Sells got bumped from ESP Sharpshooter to ESP Expert. My Half Sand bagging brother Mike Sells got bumped from CDP Sharp Shooter to CDP Expert. Congratulate them when you see them, they represented TTS in STYLE!

Tip of the Month: for all the NEW SO's

- 1) Your primary focus is safety. Everything else is secondary.
- 2) After the shooter leaves the match, they may not remember anyone else in their squad. They will remember the SO. So be nice and be fair. If they shoot a good stage, give them a compliment -- it costs you nothing and the shooter will likely remember that compliment for a very long time. Don't be afraid to be loud and emphatic if there is a safety issue ("MUZZLE!"), but don't rub it in unnecessarily.
- 3) Shooters are not given penalties -- they earn them. But don't give them a hard time about it or make it a personal thing or make it a big deal. It's just a penalty, and we all mess up on a regular basis.
- 4) We all make mistakes. If you miscount the score on a target and someone else points out your error, thank them and take the correct gracefully.

Be Safe and always have fun!
